

The Lure

2013
CABERNET SAUVIGNON
NAPA VALLEY

“A man can stand anything except a succession of ordinary days” – Faust (Goethe)

The Lure showcases fruit from Napa Valley’s legendary Stagecoach Vineyard, one of the most extreme terroirs in the region. With an elevation of 1,500 feet, the vines sit above the fog line in the valley’s eastern mountains and soak up long days of sunshine. The rocky soils provide excellent drainage and the vines are meticulously farmed. These mountain grapes are intense, concentrated and incredibly complex with ripe tannins and bold fruit.

The Lure represents the temptation that convinces Dr. Faust to strike his deal with Mephistopheles, his “pact”. While Coombsville is home, Agustin continues to be lured by vineyards that reveal their own unique expression of Cabernet Sauvignon.
